YOUTH IN TRANSITION WORKER PROGRAM

A Voice for Aboriginal Women and their Families

Program Goals

The goal of the Youth in Transition Worker (YITW) program is to support Aboriginal youth ages 16 to 24 in their successful transition out of the child welfare system into adulthood.

Your Youth in Transition Worker will provide you with support in accessing and navigating the adult services that you need in your community.

YITW can provide supports and referrals in the following areas:

- Housing Supports
- Education Resources
- Employment Services & Training
- Life Skills
- Health and Mental Health Services
- Legal Services

Who Can Send a Referral?

- Self-referral
- CAS workers
- Family members
- Health practitioners
- Teachers
- Community members

If you, or someone you know would benefit from ONWA's YITW program, be sure to contact us. We can help with your transition to a healthy, balanced, adult life.
